

University Financial Aid 2007-2008 Reconsideration Form for Parents of Dependent Students

To be completed when a significant change in income and / or assets has occurred and the family is seeking additional financial aid. Mail or FAX the completed form to Tulane University Financial Aid, 205 Mechanical Engineering Building, New Orleans, LA 70118-5698, FAX (504) 862-8750.

Student's Name: _____ SS#/TUID: _____

Parents of dependent students whose financial situation has changed from the time the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) and the CSS Profile form were filed may request review of the student's need for assistance. Significant changes, with accompanying loss of income, such as unemployment, death of a family member, change in marital status, and serious illness, can be considered with appropriate documentation.

Parents are required to attach supporting documents to this form that verify the accuracy of the information provided. Some examples of documents that can be used are check stubs, legal divorce or separation papers, death certificates, and eligibility for workmen's compensation.

Instruction: Please complete all items included in each category (if zero, write "0"; do not leave blank). The income category, Column I, refers to items as they were reported on the 2007-2008 FAFSA and Profile form and represents 2006 income. Columns II and III refer to 2006 income to date and should reflect the change in your financial situation. The income information that you give must be accurate and must be a reasonable estimate of what will be on your 2006 federal income tax return. NOTE: A parent's signature is required at the end of this form.

Explain the circumstances that resulted in the expense or debt and attach corresponding supporting documents.

We will review your request for reconsideration carefully. After taking into consideration any allowable special circumstances, if we determine that additional need exists, we will try to offer adequate additional funding to meet that need. Unfortunately, we cannot guarantee that adequate funds will be available.

Please note that it is important that the information you provide be accurate or a reasonable estimate. If future documentation indicates a significant discrepancy from the data provided, then your child's aid award for the 2007-2008 award year, as well as future awards could be adversely affected.

Parents will need to submit a copy of their completed 2007 federal income tax returns before their student's spring 2008 scholarship will be credited to their account.

I have read and understand the instructions and the conditions of the reconsideration. In case of additional changes in the family's financial situation, I will notify and inform the Tulane University Financial Aid Office promptly. My signature below indicates that all the information provided by me in this application is correct and honestly presented.
