MAJOR

An interdisciplinary major in medieval studies is offered by a staff of 15 professors from various departments whose interests are in the Middle Ages. The major in medieval studies consists of 27 credits chosen by the student and the student's advisor from the following fields: Germanic, Latin and Romance, social studies and fine arts. The student chooses one of these four fields as the area of specialization and takes four courses in this area; the remaining five courses are to be divided among at least two of the other three fields.

MDST 200 Introduction to Medieval Studies (3)

Staff. An introduction to the interdisciplinary nature of medieval studies, focusing on the relationships between history, language, and the production of literary texts.

MDST 400 Special Topics in Medieval Studies (3)
