

Information for Tulane Economics seminar visitors

Your arrival at Louis Armstrong Airport

Exit the airport at the lower level by the baggage claim. The cabstand will be to your left (on the lower level). Ask the taxi to take you to the Hampton Inn in the Garden District. The cab fare is fixed ($33) and paying in cash is preferable since not all cabs have credit card readers.

If your flight is delayed late at night and there are no cabs, ask airport employees to call you a cab or a town car. If you run into any problems, call Keith at any time (504-208-5897).

If you arrive Friday morning and plan to take a taxi straight to campus, ask the taxi to take you to Tulane's Uptown campus. Asked to be dropped off at Gibson Circle at 6823 St. Charles Avenue. Three buildings face St. Charles Avenue. The Economics Department is in the leftmost building, Tilton Hall.

Your hotel

Hampton Inn (Garden District), 3626 St. Charles Avenue, 504-899-9990

Your hotel is on the streetcar line, which gives you access to all of St. Charles (from Tulane uptown to the French Quarter downtown). If you want a nice walk, turn right on St. Charles (as you exit your hotel) and head into the Garden District. Magazine Street is between St. Charles and the river. You can find a lot of businesses there, as well. For your convenience, we have provided a map of the hotel's location in relation to the various New Orleans neighborhoods as well as Tulane University on the following page.

Schedule at Tulane

Unless otherwise specified, a Tulane faculty member will pick you up at your hotel at 10am on the morning of your seminar. You should plan to eat breakfast at the hotel (the Hampton Inn provides a free continental breakfast) or at one of the restaurants in the vicinity of your hotel (see below). The seminar will be from noon-1:30pm. After the seminar, we will provide lunch and dinner.
