Project drawings, photographs, etc.

Ca. 1945 - 1984

1 flat file drawer; 7 boxes

Records of the office of New York interior designer and trompe l'oeil painter, Eloi Bordelon (1925-1984). Records include project drawings, many in color, with the addition of a few photographs, and research material. See inventory for a list of records. Bordelon, who was originally from Algiers section of New Orleans, was a interior decorator in New York, New York, who had an international reputation as a noted designer and trompe l'oeil painter. He executed projects in the United States, Europe, and the Caribbean. His commissions include work at the Sheraton St. Regis Hotel in New York City, the Arthur Sachs residence in Super Cannes, France, and at the Barry Trupin estate, "Dragonhead" , on Long Island, New York.

PROVENANCE

Color drawings were given by Paul Uihlein, Eloi Bordelon's companion to Tulane, in 1985. Tracings, photographs, and research materials were given by Bordelons's nephew, Bruce V. Bordelon, in 1986.

INVENTORY

All projects included in inventory are Eloi Bordelon, unless otherwise noted.
