Wallpaper remnants
Ca. 1830's - 1930
14 rolls; 1 flat file drawer

Wallpaper dating from the early 19th through the early 20th centuries. Included are a number of remnants from the early 19th century Jean Zuber scenic cycle l'Helvetie. These reputedly came from the de la Ronde plantation house in St. Bernard Parish, Louisiana. There are also examples of late 19th and early 20th century floral papers, and textured papers from the 1920's and 1930's.

PROVENANCE

One group of wallpaper was given by Emilie M. de Hoa Le Blanc to Tulane ca. 1950's. A second group was given by the Historic New Orleans Collection to Tulane in 1980.
