

San Francisco Plantation House Archaeological Data and Drawings

SOUTHEASTERN ARCHITECTURAL ARCHIVE
COLLECTION 87

Measured drawings and data
1974 - 1976
1 large folder; 4 bound volumes

Measured drawings, site plan, and four bound volumes of archaeological data prepared for the restoration of San Francisco plantation house, St. James Parish, Louisiana in 1974-1976 by Koch and Wilson, architects, New Orleans. The archaeological data was prepared by Building Conservation Technology, Incorporated, Washington, D.C. The measured drawings were prepared by Koch and Wilson.

PROVENANCE

Records were given by Koch and Wilson, Architects to Tulane in 1981 and 1988.