E-Journals Results

The screenshot shows the Tulane University Libraries search results page. At the top left is the Tulane University logo. To its right, the text 'TU Link Libraries' is displayed in a dark green banner. Below the banner, the search results are shown. At the top of the results area, it says 'Found 4 records.' with a 'Close' link. Below that, there is a 'Display' dropdown menu set to '10' records per page, and 'Showing 1 - 4 of 4 records.' with a 'Go to page: 1' link. The results are listed in four rows, each starting with a 'TU Link' icon. Each row contains a list of metadata for a journal or book.

- ▣ If you don't see the year you need, click on SEARCH LIBRARY CATALOG and it will search the catalog for you. Particularly, for older issues (<2005) where we may have it in print only.
- ▣ Inputting the year, volume, issue, and page and may or may not take you directly to the article. It's always safe to click go and find your issue.

LIBRARY CATALOG

From the Rudolph Matas web page, <http://medlib.tulane.edu> click on Library Catalog.

<http://medlib.tulane.edu>

From the Library Catalog, type the journal title in the SEARCH box and select within JOURNAL TITLE

The screenshot shows a web browser window titled "Tulane Libraries Basic Search". The address bar displays the URL <http://voyager.tcs.tulane.edu/vwebv/searchBasic>. The page features the Tulane University logo and navigation links: "New Search", "My Searches", "My List", "My Account", "Exit Session", and "Help". A "Log in to your account" link is also present. The main search area is titled "Basic Search" and "Database: Tulane Libraries Catalog". It includes tabs for "Basic", "Advanced", "Subject", "Author", "Course Reserve", and "New Titles", along with a "Search History" link. The search input field contains "health affairs" and the "within" dropdown is set to "Journal Title". Below the search box, there is a "Limit To:" dropdown set to "All Material" and a "Records per page:" dropdown set to "10 records per page". A "Search" button is located to the right of the "Records per page:" dropdown. Below the search area, there are "Search Tips" and a footer with navigation links: "Tulane Libraries", "Search WorldCat", "Articles and Databases", "Search", "My Searches", "My List", "My Account", and "Help". The footer also includes "Howard-Tilton Memorial Library" and "©2009 Ex Libris Group. All rights reserved."
