Biographical Note:

Lucile Jacoby Blum attended Newcomb in the 1920's. Honoring her as one of the Centennial Award recipients in 1986, the Committee on Newcomb College wrote of her as "an indefatigable worker." They also noted that "there is little that has transpired in the performing arts in Louisiana in which she has not been a driving force and inspiration."

Scope and Contents:

- This collection consists of photocopies of clippings, certificates, posters, and other printed matter collected by Ms. Blum about her work for the performing arts. The collection is notable for its documentation on the work of Ms. Blum in promoting the arts in Louisiana schools. In conjunction with the Louisiana Council for Music and Performing Arts, Ms. Blum established the Louisiana Slide Lending Library. Another of her projects centered around "Art Outreach," which helped handicapped children and adults communicate through painting, drawing, music, drama, dance, and photography. Her dedication to the arts and the community earned her various distinctions, including The French Order of Arts and Letters in 1979; an honorary citizenship to the city of Lafayette, Louisiana in 1970; and the Loving Cup in 1969.
