Location: E-4

SOURCE OF ACQUISITION:

Donation by Barbara Ewell

RESTRICTIONS:

None

PROCESSOR:

Marissa L. Frayer, Newcomb College Class of 2006

ORGANIZATION AND ARRANGEMENT:

The material in this collection has been arranged into one storage carton. Original folder names have been used when applicable. Publications have been placed in chronological order. The papers in this collection have been unfolded, whenever possible, and all metal fasteners have been removed.

BIBLIOGRAPHICAL NOTE:

Barbara Ewell was an English professor at various universities including the University of Mississippi and Loyola University. She focused particularly on women in literature and women writers. She also served on the advisory board for the Sarah Isom Center for Women's Studies at the University of Mississippi.

SCOPE AND CONTENT:

This collection mostly contains publications from the 1950s and 1980s. Included in these publications are American Girl, Catholic Miss, and the Women's Caucus of the Modern Language's publication entitled Concerns. Also in this collection are materials related to Ewell's classes including bibliographies, final papers, and research information. The Barbara Ewell collection would be of particular interest to those researching women in literature.
