Location: Processing Room Shelves

SOURCE OF ACQUISITION:

Donation by Darlene Olivo

RESTRICTIONS:

None

PROCESSORS:

Marissa Frayer, Newcomb Class of 2006

ORGANIZATION AND ARRANGEMENT:

The collection consists of twenty-six cartons. This collection appears to have been incompletely processed numerous times. All paperclips and staples have been removed. Various cartons contain journals with spiral binding yet to be removed. Additionally, most pieces in the collection need flattening and new folders. The material was left in the condition as found.

FINDING AIDS:

Darlene Olivo's inventory can be found in the guide to the Newcomb Archives. Previous processors' notes can be found in Carton 22. Carton 26 also contains previous notes and a computer diskette.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE:

Darlene Olivo was born in 1943. She is a Louisiana native. She has worked for many years as a photographer for the Times - Picayune. She is also an ardent writer. Included in the collection are journals spanning from 1972 to 1997. Also in the collection are several manuscripts.

SCOPE AND CONTENT:

Darlene Olivo's collection consists mainly of her journals, her photographs, and her manuscripts. Her journals span from 1972 to 1997. Her photographs are presented basically in two forms: negative and print. Binders of negatives date from 1989 - 1994. Copies of her work for the Times-Picayune date from 1989 to 2000. Other periodicals in the collection include various art and activism literature. The main periodicals included are Art Paper and Off Our Backs. Her journals chronicle her personal life as well as her progress towards obtaining a Master's Degree in Art with a feminist concentration.
