BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE:

Raised in Memphis, she attended Stephens College in Missouri, then graduated with a BFA from H. Sophie Newcomb Memorial College. After graduation, she worked in the hotel business, then as an illustrator in New Orleans for the Times Picayune. While working as a designer/photographer for the Times Picayune, Wendi produced the award winning Picayune's Creole Cook Book. In the autumn of 1988, she moved to New York bringing along her portfolio of work and immediately found her unusual style and keen eye for beauty was welcomed. In 1994, she moved to Colorado to devote more time to her fine art.

Wendi Schneider's graceful compositions are evidence of her enduring commitment to beauty and passion. Perfecting the technique of oil painting on photographs, Wendi has achieved much praise and awards for her work. Her photographs can be found in collections around the world and can be viewed at the A Gallery for Fine Photography in New Orleans, the Stuart Levy Gallery in New York, Rule Modern & Contemporary Gallery and The Carol Siple Gallery, Ltd. in Denver, Jean Efron Art Consultants in Washington DC, the Wach Gallery in Avon Lakes, Ohio and at the artist's studio in Denver and Crested Butte, Colorado.
