First Folio! Exhibition Events, 2016

FEBRUARY 16 English Speaking Union, 6330 St. Charles Avenue, Lecture by Michael P. Kuczynski (Chair, English Department, Tulane University), “Hamlet and Our Problems”; open to the public by ticket purchase only: https://esu.fcny.org/neworleans/about/shakespeare400-presentation-by-m/ - check

MARCH 23-26 44th Shakespeare Association of America Meeting, Sheraton New Orleans Hotel, 500 Canal Street; open to the public by registration only: https://saa.memberclicks.net/

APRIL 23 Tulane in Stratford: The Wendell Brunious Band and Tulane School of Liberal Arts take part, by invitation, in the town of Stratford-upon-Avon’s and the Shakespeare Birthplace Trust’s Shakespeare Anniversary Celebrations

28 27th Annual Josephine Gessner Ferguson Lecture, James Shapiro (Columbia University), “Shakespeare in America,” Freeman Auditorium, Woldenberg Art Center, 6:00 p.m.

MAY 9 First Folio! Exhibition opens on the Tulane campus with a Jazz Funeral for Shakespeare, conducted by Michael White and the Liberty Brass Band, 6:30 pm

15 First Folio! HIGH SCHOOL TEACHER WORKSHOP, Newcomb Art Gallery, 1:00-3:00 pm, conducted by Scott Oldenburg (Associate Professor, English Department, Tulane University); open to the public, to participate, contact English Department, Tulane University, (504)865-5160

16 “Sonnets in the Gallery,” Poetry Reading, hosted by Peter Cooley (Professor, English Department, Tulane University and Poet Laureate of the State of Louisiana), 1:00-3:00 pm; open to the public, to participate, contact English Department, Tulane University, (504)865-5160

18 Historic New Orleans Collection, French Quarter, Exhibition: “Merry as the Day is Long”: Shakespeare’s Hand in New Orleans” and Public Lecture, “Shakespeare in New Orleans,” Oliver Hennessey (Professor, English Department, Xavier University), topic TBA