Translate into Russian:

1. Sometime I'll read War and Peace.
2. I've lived on this street for five years and I've never noticed that coffee shop.
3. When I've finished working on my article, I'll have time to read War and Peace.
4. She'll get married, she'll be afraid of putting on weight, she'll make trips out of town and stand for hours in lines.
5. Let's say that you are right in this case, and that Valentin Ivanovich will have time to finish the work.
6. I used to finish writing my homework in the morning before lunch but now it's impossible to finish all the work, I never have time.
7. Will you ever read War and Peace?
8. Tomorrow I'll get up early, go to work, return home at five, leave by train for Voronoezh and nine and arrive there by midnight.
9. I used to dress in the latest fashion.
10. I'll tell you all about my trip as soon as mother gets home.
11. What did you do last night? And what did you accomplish?
12. How was your trip?
13. How did you spend your vacation?
14. Stalin ordered her to be killed because she was indignant about the collectivization.
15. It is impossible to cross the street here; there are too many cars.
16. It is forbidden to cross the street here.
17. Love's boat has crashed onto everyday life.
18. She used to be very often unfaithful to her husband.
19. You don't need to read War and Peace.
20. It's time to go home now.